

Links to British Values in Science

British Values	EYFS	KS1	KS2
Democracy	Offer opportunities for children to take turns, share, discuss and collaborate in a range of activities	Team work	Team work during science investigation
Rule of Law	Encourage children to take turns, share and cooperate	Science investigation rules	Science investigation rules
Individual Liberty	Motivate children to ask questions. Ensure they know that their questions, ideas and opinions will be valued and respected. Allow children to develop their independence, offering them opportunities to follow their own ideas and interests. Ensure that all children engage in a wide range of activities and are not limited	Choosing which resources to use. Allow children to develop their independence, offering them opportunities to follow their own ideas and interests. Ensure that all children engage in a wide range of activities and are not limited by gender or other stereotypes.	Choice to join a club-science club Justifying conclusion from experiments, respecting other peoples results Ethics (for example genetic engineering) Devising own ways to present ideas and solutions Allow children to develop their independence, offering them opportunities to follow their own ideas and interests. Ensure that all children engage in a wide range of activities and are not limited by

	by gender or other stereotypes.		gender or other stereotypes.
Mutual Respect for and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs		Evolution versus faith beliefs	Evolution versus faith beliefs